

Interpretation Strategy Key

- A place for caring - RRCS site history
- Aboriginal heritage
- Landscape

A PLACE FOR CARING - RRCS HISTORY
 Pavement engravings to entrance forecourt incorporating quotes from John Roarty's book
 Retention of the existing sandstone entrance pillars, continuing to mark the entrance to the site

A PLACE FOR CARING - RRCS HISTORY
 Signage incorporating Rex Hazlewood photographs of Weemala, as well as residents and staff

ABORIGINAL HERITAGE
 Interpretive signage to lookout incorporating information related to the importance of water in Aboriginal life

ABORIGINAL HERITAGE
 Interpretive signage incorporated to pond deck with reference to specific identities of the local area eg. Bidgee Bidgee

A PLACE FOR CARING - RRCS HISTORY
 Series of interpretative artwork responses incorporated within the Recreational Circle expressing the idea of coming together, in terms of the hospital community and the broader community

A PLACE FOR CARING - RRCS HISTORY
 Incorporation of abstract artwork to hospital lobby / entry interpreting the transition and transformation of the hospital from past - present - future

NATURAL LANDSCAPE
 Pavement artwork along extent of pedestrian / cycle route incorporating tree species of the Turpentine-Ironbark Forest community

NATURAL LANDSCAPE
 Pavement artwork along extent of pedestrian / cycle route incorporating tree species of the Turpentine-Ironbark Forest community

