

Award to Royal Rehab physio

Liberal candidate for Bennelong John Alexander presented the Royal Rehab Centre's Sarah Fereday a Pride of Workmanship Award at the Rotary Club of Ryde recently. Ms Fereday, recognised for 14 years of work as a physiotherapist, is the professional leader for physiotherapists at the centre, a position which she has held for the three most recent years of her employment. The Putney resident says she has a particular interest in working with clients following a stroke, and is a member of committees for The Stroke Network and Smart Strokes. Ms Fereday has also shared her knowledge and experience as a presenter for Stroke Recovery seminars and Stroke Rehabilitation workshops as well as the Allied Health Council and NSW Severe Burns Unit.
