

centrenews

PANCAKE TUESDAY Simon Harrop from PUTNEY CAKES is promoting PANCAKE TUESDAY on 20th February with a special breakfast, from 7.30am 'til noon. The breakfast deal is Coffee and a special Pancake for $7. Proceeds from the breakfast are going to support the Arts and Crafts activities at RRCS to provide supplies of Art materials, oils, paints, brushes, sketch pads, stencils, crayons and watercolour pencils. The ROCCAS art class is going to have a display of Artwork from their classes in the covered eating area beside the Putney Café.

Please make a note to arrive early for work on Tuesday, and start the day with a PANCAKE Breakfast. Breakfast at Putney Cakes from 7.30am, and check out the Art exhibition.

ROCCAS Recreation Outpatient/Community Client Art Sessions. Art classes are conducted by Megan Holloway in the Coorabel Recreation Room 9.30 – 12.30 on Tuesdays. (Photo: Megan with Tom and Cath) Tom Englefield will display some of his work at the Pancake Tuesday exhibition at Putney cakes next week.

Tuesday is Shrove Tuesday recognised as PANCAKE DAY. Pancake day provides, school, community, church and business groups nation-wide the opportunity to cook and sell pancakes to raise funds to support a local charity.

GIO CTP Green Slip staff at GIO's Clarence St office, have nominated the Royal Rehabilitation Centre as their chosen charity to benefit from their Pancake Day on Tuesday 20th.

Wishlist Next Monday, representatives of O'Donnell Griffin will present a cheque to RRCS to meet the costs of a selection of items from our Wishlist, including an Air-conditioning Unit, Environmental Control Units, and a Force Plate for E-Link Gait assessment. O'Donnell Griffin, Australia's leading electrical contracting company, has formed a partnership with the RRCS Research Foundation to research "Slips, Trips and Low Fall Prevention".

Brigidene College St Ives – Four students from Brigidine spent a day with clients from the Dixon Day Activity Centre, and accompanied them to their visit to the Animal Farm. Photo: Steph with local Ryde resident, Audrey Doughlass.

Assistant Principal, Michael Halliday from Brigidene College has written " This opportunity to share in your work was very well received by our girls. Without question their time with you and the people you care for was a most enriching experience for them and challenged them emotionally, intellectually and spiritually well beyond the comforts of their normal lives. For this we are sincerely grateful, and appreciate the demands taking our students can place upon you and your organisation."

centrenews

contact – Jim Towers (ext 268) towersj@doh.health.nsw.gov.au
Marketing & Community Relations

15/02/07