

New 'Weemala' at Ryde's Royal Rehab

Ryde's Royal Rehabilitation Centre's new 'Weemala' home is due for completion this weekend and was viewed by members of the Ryde Business Forum last Friday morning, pictured left.

Next Ryde Business Forum Business After Hours will be at North Ryde's Courtyard Marriott hosted by Marriott's Louise Byron and Ryde's Salvation Army Employment Plus Lyn Mann. Inquiries 9807 4999.
